AMENDING ZONING ORDINANCE WITHIN THE SHORELAND CONSERVATION DISTRICT

ARTICLE 3. Are you in favor of amending the Lyme Zoning Ordinance to allow buried propane tanks within the Shoreland Conservation District by adding a new subsection 4.63 B 7 and amending sub section 4.63 C as follows:

7. Underground propane tanks with the following additional conditions:
 - a) Where conservation districts overlap, the tank is not located in the Wetlands or Flood Prone Conservation Districts.
 - b) Designed and properly anchored to prevent flotation. The design and installation shall be certified by an engineer or other qualified professional. The elevation of the Seasonal High-Water Table (SHWT), shall be included. In lieu of determining the SHWT, the tank installation may be designed assuming ground surface elevation to be the SHWT.
 - c) Submission of the elevation of the seasonal highwater table.
 - d) An installation plan shall be approved by the Lyme Fire Department.

C. Additional Provisions.

1. No use which utilizes, stores, processes or disposes of toxic substances which may pose a threat to surface or ground water quality, including underground fuel storage tanks other than propane are permitted.
